

Your future looks bright

HGTV

magazine

old stuff,
crazy-good
makeovers

cheery
front doors (hello!)

Add a
POP!

Awesome colors. Cool ideas. Win-win.

[front door]

come on in!

light

Troy Lighting RLM
14"-diameter aluminum
light in Tahitian teal, $138, lampsplus.com

door

37482 Thermal Sash fir
Dutch door, from $1,000, simpsondoor.com for stores; Laurent brass knob set in flat black, $145, emtek.com for stores pillow

Braydon Studio Schutte 17" x 17" polyester outdoor pillow in aqua, $66, wayfair.com

chair

Walker Edison
Chevron acacia
chairs in gray
wash, $259 for a set of 2,
houzz.com

paint

Enchanted Wells by Behr

906

house numbers

Mod Mettle New York 5½"-tall steel address plaque in black, $95, urbanmettle.com

Since a Dutch door is split in the middle, a latch on the inside holds the two halves together—that way, it can be opened as one door and only one lock is needed.

planters

Sevilla 25¼"-tall cement and wood planter in gray, $100, and 17¼"-tall planter, $60, both worldmarket.com.
We filled ours with angelface white summer snapdragons.

doormat

Hello Sunburst 24" x 39" coir doormat, $49, grandinroad.com

DOOR, DOORMAT, PILLOW: PHILIP FRIEDMAN/STUDIO D; ANGELFACE WHITE SUMMER SNAPDRAGONS: PROVEN WINNERS